GEN. STOESEL ON PORT ARTHUR'S FALL

Many of the Russians are Bitter
Against the Government.

Battle Fleet Continues on Its Journey—Destination Is Yet Uncertain.

NO FIGHTING IS REPORTED

The Battle Fleet.
St. Petersburg, Jan. 18.—The admiralty here denies a report published by the Matin of Paris to the effect that the Russian authorities are in receipt of a dispatch from Rojestvensky, saying he is leaving Madagascar without awaiting the division commanded by Rozovsky.
There is every indication that the Russian second Pacific squadron intends to cruise in the Indian Ocean
for some time, probably until the arrival of the division now being made ready at Liban.

Gen. Stoessel Talks.
London, Jan. 18.—The Express correspondent at Nagasaki had an interview with Gen. Stoessel, in the course of which the general said:

"The loss of 203 Meter bill and subsequent capture of the forts,
combined with deadly marksmanship
with the terrible 11-inch shells,
the depressing effect of the death of Gen. Kondratenko and the fearful increase of scurvy really fixed the time of capitulation. It is quite nature that I disheartened from the unanimous decision of the final council of war. Our final urgent requests for relief were never answered."

The correspondent adds that conversation with other Russian officers reveals great bitterness against denunciations of Alexieff for his failure to properly fortify Port Arthur and his "cowardly flight" by the last train from the fortress. They say the torpedo boat destroyers that escaped
before the surrender carried all regular and naval colors to Chefoo.

Junior officers denounce the in-capacities and folly of the government in entering upon the war and declare all the men who return to Russia from Port Arthur are revolutionists in spirit. These opinions were openly expressed in the presence of Stoessel, who remarked:

"Let them talk; they have earned the right to think as they please by braving untold deaths for our country."

Natives Are Fleeing.

Mukden, Jan. 18.—The population of the city is leaving in expectation of the Japanese advance. Natives report that forty thousand troops from Nogai's forces at Port Arthur have advanced north to join Field Marshal Oyama.

Vessels Going South.

London, Jan. 18.—A dispatch
from Berlin, off the coast of Arabia,
states that two Russian warships
and two steamers of the volunteer fleet, and two torpedo boats, passed
there today bound south.

Carrying War Material.

London, Jan. 18.—It is stated that three vessels flying the German flag
have left Hamburg and Bremen during the past fortnight loaded with arms, ammunition and stores for the vessels of the Russian battle fleet.
The war material is to be put aboard
the Russian warships at some unknown place in the Indian Ocean.

OVER AT LAST.

Textile Strike Ended at Boston
Today.

Boston, Jan. 18.—The strike of Fall River textile workers on for a half year, was settled today at a conference and employees will return to work at once. The wage scale will be adjusted with the help of governor Douglas.

MAY GET BAIL.

Federal Court Fixes Mrs. Chadwick's
Bond at $20,000.

Cleveland, O., Jan. 18.—The federal court today accepted $20,000
bail for Mrs. Chadwick. Her attorney will now apply to the county court to fix bail on the three indictments against Mrs. Chadwick.

JO REPUDIATES THAT INTERVIEW

Says the Governor Could Have Verified It.

Alludes to Governor Beckham As a
"Callow, Inoffensive Young Governor."

THE WAR IS NOW ON

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 18.—Sennor
da Blackburn today arrived and replies to Governor Beckham.

He says that had the governor taken the trouble to inquire, he would have learned that the interview credited to him, Blackburn, by a Washington correspondent, had never been submitted to him.

"I did not know till I arrived here that anything had been published in regard to any talk with the correspondent," said Sennor Blackburn.

"I could have assured the governor that I did not say I had a com-tempt for him or his conduct of party affairs."

It is evident that the feeling between Blackburn and Beckham and their friends is not very cordial, however. Blackburn denies several of the statements made by Governor Beckham in his reply and refers to the governor as the "callow, inoffensive young governor."

It appears obvious that both sides are itching for the fray, and that Beckham was only too anxious for an excuse to get at Blackburn, to test ascertain to what extent the interview was authentic.

Blackburn has attracted considerable attention by reason of the controversy, and politics has aroused much more interest in the capital
than was anticipated when the legislature convened.

There is little prospect of a reconciliation, as the interests of the two politicians and their friends are too diverse. They both seem to have their eye on the same thing.

THOUGHT TO BE SINKING.

Mr. George Detzel is in a Critical Condition Today.

Mr. George Detzel, who has been in ill health from liver trouble for the past year, is thought to be slowly sinking today at his home, 719 Madison street, his many friends will regret to learn. He has been critically ill at times for several months,
but rallied and was until recently able to be out. His last attack has kept him in bed about a month, and today he is hardly alive, and little hope is entertained for his recovery.

A BAD EGG.

Graduate of Oxford Confesses to Many Thefts.

New York, Jan. 18.—James B.
Walker, aged 42, of Chicago, a graduate of Oxford college, with many aliases and a long criminal record, was yesterday sentenced to five years
in prison for grand larceny.

Walker pleaded guilty to stealing $1,300 worth of jewelry from the home of Mrs. Viva Brewster of this city. He also confessed to having robbed fifteen or sixteen other households in this city.

BURNS FATAL.

Child Who Died in Ballard County
Buried in Oak Grove.

The four month old daughter of Sydney Cullys, of Terrell's farm in Ballard county, was buried yesterday at Oak Grove.

The child last Thursday fell out of a rocking chair and alighted in the fire. When the mother came in she found it fatally burned, the child dying Sunday night.

BYRDE'S STATEMENT.

Says He Will Prove Conspiracy to Murder.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 18.—In the trial of Wm. Britton, charged with the murder of James Cockrell, at Jackson, Attorney Byrd, for the prosecution, made the opening address.
He said he would prove Judge Har-giss, Britton, Curt Jett and others conspired to kill Cockrell, who was shot from the court house window.

NIEDRINGHAUS WON THE SENATORSHIP

St. Louis Man Received a Safe Majority.

Yesterday's Vote Did Not Settle—
Formal Election Takes Place
Today.

BALLOT TODAY UNDECISIVE.

Jefferson City, Mo., Jan. 18.—
Thomas K. Niedringhaus of St. Louis yesterday received a majority of the total vote cast in both houses of the Missouri legislature for United States senator to succeed F. M. Cockrell.
He received a majority of eight on joint ballot.

The voting in both houses, resulted
as follows:

House—Niedringhaus, 79; Cockrell, 58; Kerns, 1; Bittlinger, 1.
Senate—Niedringhaus, 11; Cockrell, 22. Total, Niedringhaus, 90;
Cockrell, 80; Kerns, 1; Bittlinger, 1.
Under the law yesterday's voting does not finally elect a senator. The official balloting will be done today,
when both branches of the general assembly will meet in joint session.

The first joint ballot for U. S. senator resulted in no election. Result, Niedringhaus, 87; Cockrell, 83;
Kerns, 6.

TIME EXTENDED

For Filing of Answer of Gov. Adams
in Colorado.

Denver, Colo., Jan. 18.—At a joint session of the general assembly yesterday afternoon to take action on the contest filed by James H. Peabody for the office of governor, a request of attorneys for Governor Adams for an extension until 2:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon of the time to submit an answer to the charges made in the contest papers was granted by a vote of 61 to 34. By the same vote the legislature decided to proceed at once with the taking of testimony in the contest.

GENERAL DENIAL

By China of Intention to Violate Neutrality.

Washington, Jan. 18.—Secretary
Hay has addressed a note to the Russian ambassador here, acknowledging receipt of the Russian complaint of violation of neutrality by China.

Through interviews with the Chinese minister here, the secretary was acquainted with the Chinese position
in this matter and of a purpose to enter into a general denial of the Russian charges, which is probably also known now to Count Cassini.

KILLED A WOMAN.

Italian Then Sought the Mystery By Suiciding.

Lockport, N. Y., Jan. 18.—Mary Kieff, member of a good family, was shot and killed in the Pearl hotel
this morning by an unknown Italian who then committed suicide. No cause is assigned for the tragedy.

HIG SENSATION.

Arrest Made After Many Months on Sarah Schaffer Case.

Hedford, Ind., Jan. 18.—Frank Evans and Elmer Browning were arrested this afternoon charged with the murder of Sarah Schaffer, the High school teacher, a year ago.

BISHOP'S QUARREL GOES INTO COURT

Irvine to Sue Bishop Talbot for Alleged Slander.

The Preliminary Papers Were Served
But the Amount of Damages Is Not Given.

IRVINE WANTS FULL INQUIRY.

Philadelphia, Jan. 18.—The controversy between Bishop Talbot and Rev. Irvine took a new turn today and it is probable that the whole affair will be answered in the civil courts. Irvine has filed notice of a suit for slander against Talbot, asking damages. Papers were served on the bishop who came to this city
to preside at a meeting of the general committee on Sunday school instruction of the Episcopal church.

Irvine's action was the result of a suggestion made by Rev. Dr. Fulton, editor of the Church Standard in a letter to Rev. Daniel I. Odell of this city during the early stages of the controversy, in which the suggestion was made that if Talbot had made statements concerning Irvine which were not true he had redress in the courts. Today Irvine's attorney filed notice of a suit and papers were served upon the bishop by a process server.

The amount of damages asked by Irvine is not known. It is believed the deposed priest brought the legal proceedings against the prelate because of the failure of the ecclesiastical board of inquiry recently appointed by Bishop Tuttle to investigate his charges against the bishop.

HUNDREDS ARE KILLED IN AN EARTHQUAKE.

London, Jan. 18.—A dispatch from St. Petersburg reports that an earthquake at Shemakha, (70 miles northwest of Baku), buried hundreds of people in the ruins of a building in the lower part of the town, which was densely populated, despite a decision after the earthquake
three years ago, that no more houses should be built there.

FELL A CORPSE.

Tragic Death Of An Indiana Athlete
In Church.

Winamac, Ind., Jan. 18.—The sudden death last night of Richard Hosby during church services in the Widlers' Station chapel has caused a commotion among saints and sinners alike.

Hosby had long been known as an atheist, and was alleged to have said
on various occasions that he had no use for churches. However, last night he entered the church to seek shelter from the midnight storm.

Soon after he entered Rev. James McCarry made an earnest plea for gospel recruits, and during the course of his talk said: "There is one unbeliever in this congregation,
a sinner who cannot be saved from death tonight unless he becomes a Christian."

The prophesy of the preacher was soon fulfilled, when Hosby, with an anguished cry of "Oh!" fell back in his seat a corpse.

FIRE OUT.

Swartzchild & Sulzberger Lost Entire
Stock, $600,000.

Chicago, Jan. 18.—After forty-eight hours continuous fighting, the fire in the storage warehouse of Swartzchild & Sulzberger, at the Union stock yards was placed under control about midnight. The contents of the warehouse were entirely lost, but the walls of the building are unharmful. The entire loss is estimated at $600,000.

Woman Has Triplets.

Centerville, Tenn., Jan. 19.—Mrs.
Cobb, who resides near Craigfield,
on the line of Hickman and Williamsou
counties, has given birth to triplets, two boys and a girl. The girl weighs 10 pounds, one of the boys 8 1/2 and the other 7 pounds. The children are healthy and vigorous. The father is 71 years old.

CONFERENCE HELD TO OUTLINE PLANS

State Y. M. C. A. Secretary
Roseveare Was Present.

Joint Committees Are Appointed
—Reception Last Night Was a Fine Affair.

ELEGANT PROGRAM RENDERED.

A conference was held this morning at the Y. M. C. A. building between the board of directors, the woman's committee, State Secretary
Roseveare, and Secretary Godfrey.
Many plans were discussed and outlined in regard to the future work.

Joint committee from both branches were appointed to look into the inadequacy of the institution and arrange as to the settlement at an early date. There will be a joint meeting of the boards again on Monday evening.

One of the largest and most representative crowds that has ever been gathered in the local Y. M. C.
A. was present last evening at the reception in honor of the reopening of the building. The double parlors, hall, and secretary's office were crowded, and those who make business their pleasure touched elbows
with those who make pleasure a business, and all enjoyed the mingling thoroughly. In fact, the spirit of joyousness characterized the evening,
and evinced the deep interest felt by all in the reopening of the Y. M. C.
A. work here. Prof. Wm. Deal's splendid orchestra added to the pleasure of the occasion by their excellent music.

The woman's committee, who have borne the burden and heat of the conflict, received, looking as if they had never toiled, and made the guests very welcome. State Secretary H. E. Roseveare of Louisville, was present and was a host in himself,
as always being equal to every occasion. The new temporary secretary Mr. Blake W. Godfrey of Louisville made a most agreeable impression on every one, by his responsivness and cordiality and the power of meeting people as individuals not as masses.

A very delightful musical and literary program was rendered more or less informally on account of the great crowd. Some of the city's most gifted talent took part. Miss Blanche Buckner's singing of "Annie Laurie"
was especially effective. Mr.
Harry Hermand, the actor, gave several clever recitations.

Coffee and sandwiches were served, and the table in the dining room was most attractively arranged with roses and shaded candles in silver candelabra. The parlors were decorated with red and white carnations.
A free-will offering of $48.25 was received during the evening.

The building is now open and Mr.
Godfrey will cordially welcome all who call.

SEVERAL APPLY

AND EXAMINATIONS FOR PANAMA
POSITIONS ARE ON.

Eleven in All Are at the Government Building Being Examined Today.

Mr. Fred Ashton is today holding a civil service examination at the postoffice, and there are many applicants being examined.

The examinations are for Panama canal service and the total number of applicants is eleven. They are:

Edmond S. Frakes, city, for clerk.
Jesse C. Sullivan, Mayfield, physician.

Elmer E. Price, city, bookkeeper.
Overton P. Roberts, Murray, bookkeeper.

Geo. T. Browne, city, bookkeeper.
Eugene R. Schulerio, Claude Du-free, Golconda, Gilbert Bailey, city; Campbell Beaumont, Mayfield, and Presley W. Moore, Russellville, all for time keeper.

It was intended that civil service examinations for engineers be held today, but was postponed until the 30th and applications are still being received.

CHIEF OF POLICE REPORTED DEAD

Russian Officer Rumored to Have Been Assassinated.

Big Strike at Naval Yards at St. Petersburg Spreads—12,000 John-ed This Morning.

LOUBET ACCEPTS RESIGNATION.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 18.—An unconfirmed report is current at St.
Petersburg today that Gen. Treppoff,
chief of police of Moscow, was assassinated while en route from Moscow to St. Petersburg. The report is given some credence owing to the fact that several attempts to assassinate
the chief of police have been made.

12,000 Men Strike.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 18.—The strike started at the Putiloff shipbuilding works yesterday, is spreading. Today twelve thousand workmen in the navy yards went out in sympathy.

Accepts Cabinet's Resignation.

Paris, Jan. 18.—President Loubet accepted the resignation of the cabinet today, but requested the ministers to continue attending to the functions of their offices until a new cabinet is formed.

Big Loss of Oil.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 18.—The strike in the Baku oil fields has caused a loss of a hundred and twenty-five million gallons of oil, besides the damage to equipments. The price of oil in consequence has advanced.

Bloody Elections in Hungary.

Vienna, Jan. 18.—General elections are in progress in Hungary today and there were numerous fights at various points. Thus far two deaths and twenty-seven injuries
have been reported.

No Assassination.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 18.—General
Treppoff, former chief of police of Moscow, reported assassinated while on his way to St. Petersburg, arrived here today.

KILLED HIS FATHER

YET THE YOUNG MAN CURSED
BECAUSE HE COULD NOT ATTEND FUNERAL.

The Killing Was the Result of a Quarrel Over House Slippers.

Huathington, W. Va., Jan. 18.—Because the jail authorities refused to allow him to attend the funeral of his father whom he had shot to death
Saturday night, Harry West, aged 20, broke down in the cell yesterday and
for half an hour wept like a child.

He afterward threatened the jailer,
saying: "If you don't let me attend
my father's funeral I will get even some day." He cursed all the county officers from judge to constable, declaring that they had no hearts, to keep him in jail while his parent was being buried.

West killed his father, James West,
because the latter would not let him wear his house slippers. When the father refused, West ran upstairs for a pistol and appeared at the head of the stairs as his father started up after him. The latter was literally riddled with bullets and John Shaffer,
who interfered, was shot in the head.

MOHON DOCTRINE.

Must Not Hereafter Be Taught in Public Places.

Salt Lake City, Utah, Jan. 17.—The
first presidency of the Mormon church today issued formal and positive instructions to president of state, bishops and superintendents of classes in religion, forbidding further use of public buildings for the teaching of doctrine of the church.

In many places in Utah the classes
in religion have been held in school buildings and recently there has been strong agitation against the practice.

PUTTING IT STRONG.

That Doesn't Look Reasonable.

This may read as though we were putting it a little strong, because it is generally thought by the majority of people that Dyspepsia in its chronic form is incurable or practically so. But we have long since shown that Dyspepsia is curable, nor is it such that Dyspepsia can, as it is such a difficult matter as at first appears.

The trouble with Dyspepsia is that they are continually dieting, starving themselves, or going to opposite extreme or else deluging the already overburdened stomach with "biters," "after dinner pills," etc., which invariably increase the difficulty even if in some cases they do give a slight temporary relief. Such treatment of the stomach simply makes matters worse. What the stomach wants is rest. Now how can the stomach become rested, recuperated and at the same time the body nourished and sustained.

This is a great secret and this is also the secret of the uniform success of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. This is a comparatively new remedy but its success and popularity leaves no doubt as to its merit.

The Tablets will digest the food anyway, regardless of condition of stomach.

The sufferer from Dyspepsia according to directions, is to eat an abundance of good wholesome food and use the tablets before and after each meal and the result will be that the food will be digested no matter how bad your Dyspepsia may be, because, as before stated, the tablets will digest the food even if the stomach is wholly inactive. To illustrate our meaning: plainly, if you take 1-500 grains of meat, eggs or ordinary food and place it in a temperature of 98 degrees, and put with it one of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets it will digest the meat or eggs almost as perfectly as if the meat was enclosed within the stomach.

The stomach may be ever so weak yet these tablets will perform the work of digestion and the body and brain will be properly nourished and at the same time a radical, lasting cure of Dyspepsia will be made because the much abused stomach will be given, to some extent, a much needed rest. Your druggist will tell you that of all the many remedies advertised to cure Dyspepsia none of them have given so complete and general satisfaction as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and not least in importance in these hard times is the fact that they are also the cheapest and give the most good for the least money.

CAR BREAKERS.

Negroes Given a Lively Chase, But They Escaped.

Special Officer Dick Tolbert, of the I. C., assisted by Officers Gourleux and Potter, of the police force, gave a party of box car breakers a chase late yesterday afternoon but the officers were unsuccessful in catching them.

All day yesterday five negroes, supposedly, killed chickens belonging to negroes residing near the south yards of the local I. C., and when the men were seen to break a box car seal and enter a car of shelled corn, the negroes telephoned the police.

Officer Tolbert secured the regular police and went to the yards, but the men saw them first and ran. The officers followed until they saw the fugitives were out of reach.

Any woman may fool a man, but not one case in a thousand can keep him fooled.

PUSHING WORK

LABOR NIGHT AND DAY ON IMPROVEMENTS.

Hallroads Fear New Track Will Not Be Completed—Fear the Rising River.

A force of 400 men are working night and day at Wickliffe in order to complete the new railroad line from Wickliffe to Port Jefferson before the spring rise of the Ohio river completely washes away their present track, which runs along the river bank.

The new route was surveyed some months ago and work was commenced immediately. The contractors have been greatly handicapped by the cold and freezing weather, many arrests.

The new route runs directly through the town of Wickliffe and over a dozen houses had to be moved from their foundations in order to secure the right of way. The town of Wickliffe is brightly illuminated at night by large numbers of gasoline and electric lights. The new line runs through the large hill at Wickliffe, and it necessitates a nine foot cut. This is one of the deepest cuts ever made in this part of the country for railroad construction.

BOARD OF WORKS.

Little to Come Before It This Afternoon—Broadway Contract.

The regular meeting of the board of public works will be held this afternoon, but only a few matters of minor importance will come up.

In regard to the failure of the bitulite contractors to finish Broadway on time, it is likely the city will claim none of the $20 a day forfeit. The matter has been referred to City Engineer L. A. Washington. According to a member of the board of works, the contractors worked every day when the weather or the condition of the ground would permit, and when given the credits due them, the city will have nothing coming to it on account of the $20 a day forfeit.

The bitulite contractors are today packing up the boiling pots and tools preparatory to shipping them to Birmingham, Ala., and will have everything out of the city except the mixing plant by the end of the week.

The mixing plant will remain here, Supt. Nichols says, until spring when the contractors will have repair work to do.

THE DIRECTORS.

Masonic and Odd Fellows Association Elected Board.

The following directors were chosen by the Masonic and Odd Fellows Association for the ensuing year:

Major J. H. Ashcraft from Paducah Commandery, Fred Acker from Paducah lodge 127 F & A. M., Jas. E. Wilhelm, from Plain City Lodge No. 419, F & A. M., J. J. Beckenbach, from Union Encampment, L. K. Taylor, from Ingleside lodge, and C. G. Kelly from Mangum lodge.

Last night the directors met and re-elected Jas. E. Wilhelm, president; P. J. Beckenbach, vice president; C. G. Kelly, secretary; Fred Acker, treasurer and Jas. E. Wilhelm, custodian of the Fraternity building.

WILL BE PERMANENT

LEE LINE EXPECTS TO RUN ITS BOATS ALL YEAR.

Will Build Boats Adapted to the Trade and Compete With the Hallroads.

The building of the new Lee line boats for the upper Mississippi and Ohio river trade will mean the opening of all year round traffic between Memphis and Ohio river cities, says the Memphis Commercial Appeal.

When these boats are put in commission it will really mean more than the mere building of the boats: It will mean that river traffic and passenger service between Memphis and up-river cities will be put in competition with the railroads leading to these points throughout the entire year instead of during the high water season.

The boats are to be built peculiarly for the up-river trade. The draft will be somewhat lighter than that of the present boats plying the river above here, and the craft will be constructed with steel hulls. The boats will be built at a cost exceeding $100,000 each, and will be the finest afloat on the Mississippi.

It is possible better freight rates can be secured from the railroads when it is assured that all-year-round navigation can be had between Memphis and upper Mississippi river and Ohio river cities.

Memphis is considered the head of all-year river navigation at the present time, but with the building of the new Lee line boats the river will be made navigable beyond St. Louis and up the Ohio river during the entire year.

ISLAND QUEEN

Floated Helplessly in Ice—How Boats Used to Take Her to Harbor.

The Island Queen, the popular pleasure boat which visits Paducah every year, barely escaped being lost at Cincinnati Monday. A dispatch says:

The Coney Island company's boat, The Island Queen, drifted helplessly along the ice-filled Ohio river today for an hour at the mercy of the current and heavy ice until finally tow-boats sent from Cincinnati towed her to a safe harbor at Coal Haven. A small gorge that had been a mile above for several days broke and the ice came down with a rush and hit the boat. The cable snapped and the big steamer with no steam up swung out to the middle of the stream and floated down, a part of the mass that covered the surface of the river.

The escape of the boat was witnessed by watchmen and they were ordered to the rescue. Ploughing through ice the boats met the Island Queen after she had floated three miles. Slowly the big boat, guided by its filipin companion, was steered into the coal harbor.

The first examination of the Island Queen leads to the belief that the boat escaped injury.

Kodol DYSPEPSIA CURE

Digests What You Eat

I have been a dyspeptic all my life, have tried all kinds of Dyspepsia remedies, but continued to get worse. Could eat but little and suffered greatly. I was reduced in weight and run down to nothing in strength. After using a few bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure I began to improve and am now fully restored in weight, health and strength. I am now able to do my own work and can eat whatever I like.

Father and Two Sons Arrived From Florence Station.

J. J. Manning, of near Florence Station, came to the city about yesterday afternoon with his two sons, Dave, aged 17, and Joe, aged 10, to secure help, if possible.

Manning had been working on a farm.

Last night the trio slept in the court room at the city hall and this morning the boys ran around the other front hungry until Captain H. Baker, of the Ayer-Lord Tie Co. found them and gave them their breakfast.

The boys appreciated the food and stated they had lost their father. One brother, aged 13, was left at Florence Station, and the boys say he has nothing to eat and nobody to look to. The case will be referred to the Charity club.

Manning is an aged man and badly crippled. He was begging on the streets this morning when stopped and directed to the county judge or Charity club. He is in a bad fix, unable to work, and without anything. He may be put in the county poor farm.

LEGISLATORS WANT TO MOVE CAPITOL

Chaotic Conditions Threatened at Frankfort Now.

Senator Wheeler Campbell Attempts To Show That the Governor Cannot Restrict the Legislature.

A BIG GRAFT IS IN SIGHT

Frankfort, Ky., Jan. 18. The desire to prolong the legislature and grind various axes that need sharpening has cropped out on several occasions recently.

Senator Campbell Cantrill, who had been painfully reticent, broke loose yesterday, and Senator Wheeler Campbell, of Paducah, attempted to show that the governor had no right to limit the legislature to any special subject.

Senator Campbell Cantrill addressed the body as to the best site in Frankfort. He urged the erection of the new capitol on the grounds owned by the state on the high east hill contiguous to the Feeble-minded Institute. In answer to the argument that the hill is beyond water protection, he thought the feeble-minded children, over 100 in number, were being poorly cared for by the state. He thought a system of waterworks should be constructed sufficiently large to supply water for the penitentiary, the institute and the new capitol, and operated with the $5,000 now devoted to buying water for the prison alone.

Senator Cantrill said the sites offered were not assessed at more than one-fifth of the price now asked for them, and that the legislature ought not to be unloaded upon by real estate agents. He further said that one site, which was really assessed at $2,500, had been offered to the legislature at $25,000.

Senator Cantrill closed his address after strongly urging the selection of the Arsenal hill site.

Senator Whitl offered a resolution authorizing the appointment of a joint committee from the senate and the house to draft and submit a bill to the next general assembly putting the capitol question to the voters for settlement.

Senator Whitl said the reason he offered his resolution was because the people were asking enormous prices for their lands. Senator Ferris made a hot speech saying he was in favor of moving the capitol away from Frankfort, because the people of Frankfort had permitted the defeat of Senator E. H. Taylor to the house, the man who has done more than all others to secure for Frankfort the location. He thought the people of Frankfort were too ungrateful to be honored with a capitol. Senator Allen made a strong speech urging that the Whitl resolution comes under the governor's call. Senator Campbell, of Paducah, read extracts from the constitution of Kentucky which he claimed indicated that the governor had no right to limit the legislature to any special subject. He further said the legislature is a sovereign body, and that the governor has no right to require it to act upon anything.

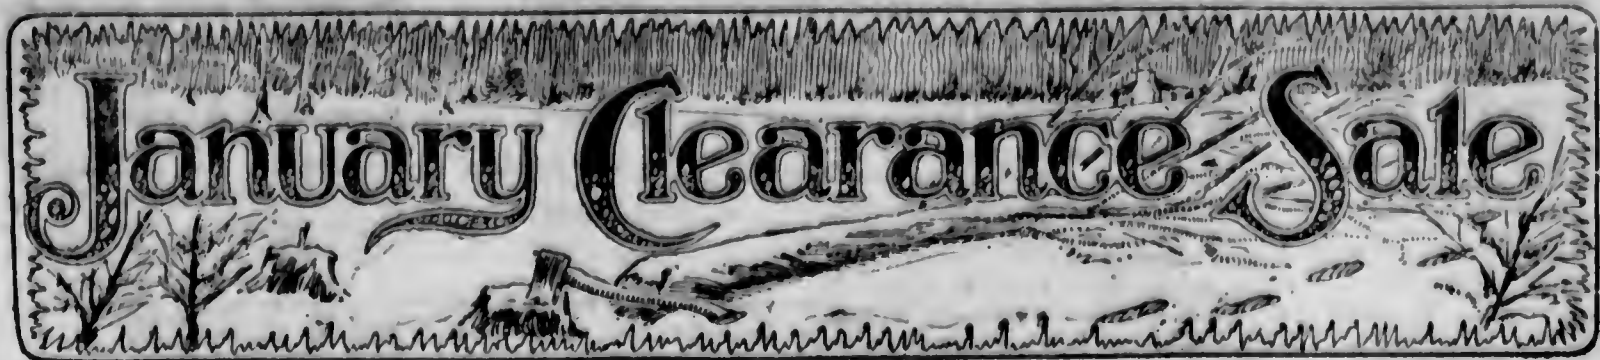

President Thorne said the Whitl resolution was the smoothest thing of the kind he had ever seen and capable of bringing about the most intricate conditions. He held that the resolution was out of order.

It seems that trouble is brewing among members of the legislature, and the settlement of the capitol site question is far from closed. The owners of the Hunt property, on the South Side, which seems to be the most favorable site offered, asked originally $15,000 for about twenty-three acres, but to make the site complete it will take about six acres more of the same land, and for this small additional tract the sum of $20,000 is asked. The members have made an investigation, and claim to have discovered that the entire property is assessed at the insignificant sum of $5,500.

Many of the legislators now claim that they will not, under any condition, vote to purchase the Hunt land and a very considerable per cent have been making investigations as to the legality of moving the capitol to Lexington.

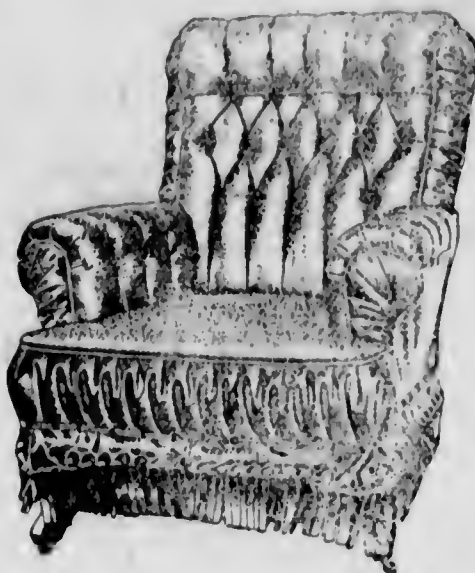

One member has openly declared that some of the best lawyers in the state had informed him that it

WAS RICH.

Although His Neighbors Thought Him Poor.

Chicago, Jan. 18.—Working at odd jobs, pinching every penny and accepting charity even to the cast-off clothing of neighbors supposed to be better off than himself, Daniel Mahanna, 71 years old, of Batavia, died richer than many of those who had taken pity on him. The discovery was made yesterday, two months after his death, when the wife, 70 years old, who was suing for divorce, and the son, who was supporting her out of his meager earnings as a mechanic, appeared in the probate court at Geneva and produced unrecorded deeds to 400 acres of land near Batavia, worth $150 an acre.

Besides this $60,000 worth of real estate it is believed that Mahanna may have left considerable personal property in concealment. The deeds to the land he owned bore the date of 1865 and the property had not been occupied for years.

TWO WEEKS

And Possibly More Will Be Required By Supervisors.

The city and county supervisors are still pegging away over the books, and will be busy for some time to come.

There are not many raises in assessment of a great size this year, and the total raise will amount to a great deal less in both city and county than last year.

The city supervisors work by plat and the county supervisors perform the work as they come to it. Both boards have been granted an extension of time and will be busy for two weeks longer.

THE JUDICIARY AND POLITICS.

The Louisville Bar Association has taken up the commendable but rather hopeless task of removing the judiciary from politics. As long as the judges are elected and are paid good salaries, there will be unworthy men, occasionally at least, to go out after the jobs. In politics men are not always nominated for their good qualifications, nor elected for that reason, either. Too often men are chosen simply because they are politicians.

The Louisville attorneys, however, have decided to draft a bill to be submitted to the legislature making possible the nomination of the same men by different parties for judgeships. Hon. Henry Burnett, our former fellow citizen, read a fine paper before the Louisville association on "How May an Election of Judges Be Taken Out of Politics?" and there was a great deal of interest and enthusiasm in the discussion. The Louisville Herald remarks on the move:

"Although the measure as a reform is new to Louisville; it is an accomplished fact in several of the northern states, notably Massachusetts and New York. In the former state judges are appointed by the governor, and remain in office during good behavior. Their entrance into politics is regarded improper.

"In New York the foisting of politics into judiciary races has cost the democratic party repeated defeats.

"In preparation for the discussion yesterday the methods of other states successful in the reform had been inquired into by members of the association. The prevailing sentiment of the members present was that the reform should be and would be brought about if it lay in the power of the Louisville bar to accomplish that end."

PROTECTING PUBLIC HEALTH.

The Fulton Commercial calls attention to a practice that is prevalent to a greater or less extent in nearly every city—that of being more considerate towards people whose family or members of whose family, are afflicted with contagious diseases, than for the hundreds and frequently thousands of other people whose health and lives are jeopardized by the often criminal favors shown these unfortunate afflicted. We can all sympathize with and even help, those who are afflicted and in distress, but we should not be expected by so doing to expose others to the danger of becoming similarly afflicted. The Fulton paper evidently speaks from experience when it says:

"We regretfully announce that our optimistic view or hope that we were free from scarlet fever in the city, has failed of realization. There is scarlet fever here. One case we know of certain and there are others. We call upon the health authorities to promptly quarantine every case and family in which there is a case of the fever. No use for us to talk of discomfort or inconvenience for those who are so unfortunate as to have the disease. The lives of the children of the city must be guarded. This is as far as we will insist at present.

"It may become necessary to adopt other measures to prevent the spread of the disease. What we do insist on now, is that absolute and effective quarantine measures be adopted and enforced."

It is stated that a Democratic Alderman claims "they have it fixed" to elect Alderman Davis president of the board tomorrow night. "They" doubtless have it fixed only among themselves, and "they" haven't known any in numbers or importance since the last meeting.

If the legislature does not get down to work pretty quick, the people will unanimously endorse the proposed site next to the Feeble Minded Institute.

COUNTY SCHOOLS

CLOSING FOR TERM

Public School at Lone Oak Closed Today.

Tomorrow the School Term Near Lovelaceville Will End Its Term—Others to Follow.

Today the public school at Lone Oak, Miss May Ellis teacher, will close and tomorrow the school near Lovelaceville, Miss May Young teacher, will close. These are among the first schools to close, but others will follow in quick order.

The session in county schools is only six months and they take up about the same time the city schools do. The season has been a good one with little trouble except in one or two districts.

The college at Lone Oak is increasing in popularity and many new pupils are being secured. On the 22d of February, Washington's birthday, the pupils and teacher will give an entertainment. An elaborate program will be prepared.

The teachers recently organized among the pupils a literary society which meets every Thursday. The society has already become a subject of much interest in the schools although it has been organized only a week.

The last Friday and Saturday of this month Supt. Ragsdale will hold examinations at the county courthouse here, and at Grahamville, for common school graduates certificates, and eight or ten applicants are expected to show up.

THE DEFENDANT WON IN DAMAGE SUIT

Verdict in the Day Personal Injury Trial.

New Trial to be Asked in Stevenson Case—Dr. D. T. Stuart Sues For Falling Into Ditch.

SOME NEWS OF OTHER COURTS.

Circuit Court.

The case of S. W. Day against the Palmer Transfer Co. today resulted in a verdict for the defendant.

The suit of James Doolin against Officer Gus Rogers for $5,000 damages for alleged false arrest was dismissed in circuit court yesterday afternoon at the instance of Attorney Worthen, for the plaintiff. The boy was arrested for disturbing the peace by drawing a large crowd by sparring with another boy at Second and Broadway, regular boxing gloves being used.

The case of S. W. Day, father-in-law of S. W. McKee, the stove man formerly of Paducah, but now of Louisville, against the Palmer Transfer company for $2,500 damages for injuries received about 18 months ago by being in a hack that went down an embankment near the I. C. passenger depot, was taken up yesterday. The transfer company made the city of Paducah a party to the suit, alleging that the accident was due to inadequate railing along the embankment. The court yesterday dismissed the city of Paducah on the plea of limitation, it not having been made a party to the suit until a year after the accident.

The case of J. M. Wortham against Clark McTyre was dismissed without prejudice.

Attorneys for the defendant in the case of L. E. Stevenson, administrator of Lucy Stevenson, against the I. C. road, will file a motion for a new trial and hope to secure it without much trouble. This is the case in which the jury yesterday returned a verdict for $25,000, the full amount asked.

The case of J. H. Moore against J. W. Higglesberger and brother, was dismissed without prejudice.

The case of Vernon Hlythe against the Paducah City Railway Co., resulted in a verdict for the defendant. Dr. Hlythe sued for $160 damages to his horse which was struck by a car.

Wills Probated.

The last will of the late Capt. Joe Fowler was admitted to probate in county court yesterday, and was dated Dec. 26, 1878, and witnessed by W. H. Jones, J. C. Cobb and Henry Eaders. All the property of the deceased is left to his wife, who is named as executrix without bond.

The will of the late Mrs. Wilson Thompson was filed but not probated, it being ordered that the depositions be taken at Houston, Tex., of Noah Allen and J. D. Duckett, who witnessed the document. Mrs. Birdie Wilbur is named as executrix, and will remain here until the will is probated.

Trunks Still Held.

The Ezra Kendall company is now playing in Jacksonville, Fla., and the manager has written a letter here saying the costs and amount sued for in the attachment case brought by Mr. L. A. Lagomarsino to secure payment of $8 for lunch members of the company ordered and refused, would be paid.

The trunks are being held and will be until the case is settled in court.

defendant and on the 24th of November fell into a vat of boiling water and was fatally burned, dying that night. It is alleged that the vat was not properly protected and that the accident was due to the negligence of the defense.

Victory for Attorney Oliver.

Attorney George Oliver this afternoon received a telegram from Frankfort saying that the judgment of the lower court in the case of Hall and Sanderson against the Continental Insurance Co., had been confirmed which means a victory for the Paducah lawyer who conducted the case for the defense. The plaintiff sued on a $600 policy. It seems that Hall sold the house to Mrs. Sanderson and failed to transfer the policy, and when the house burned, tried to collect it.

Suit Over Bad Streets.

D. T. Stuart has filed suit against Contractors George Gardner, Charles Robertson and the city of Paducah for damages amounting to $251. He alleges his horse fell into storm water sewerage excavations near Sixth and Broadway, September 17. The excavations had sunk and caused a wire and the horse was injured, also the buggy and the harness. The bill of the veterinary is included in the suit.

Deeds.

G. H. Wootan and others to W. N. Warren, for private consideration, property on Burnett street.

E. P. Gilson and others to Kittle Howden, for $275, property in the Fountain park addition.

W. C. O'Brien to S. L. Davis, for $100, property in the Chamblin addition.

MRS. DUNN DEAD.

Well-Known Woman Finally Succumbs Near Smithland.

News today reached the city of the death at Smithland at 3:30 o'clock this morning of Mrs. Dave Dunn, who had been critically ill for the past two or three weeks. Her life had for some time been despaired of, and her brothers and sisters, one of the former from Texas, had been at her bedside for several days.

The deceased was wife of Mr. David A. Dunn, and was a sister of Mr. Kit Haynes, formerly a clerk at the Fowler boat store here. She leaves besides a husband, thirteen children, the youngest an infant only a few weeks old.

The funeral will be tomorrow some time.

THE SON OF U. S. MINISTER TO ENGLAND

Commends Pe-ru-na to All Catarrh Sufferers.

Hon. Lewis E. Johnson is the son of the late Reverdy Johnson who was United States Senator from Maryland, also Attorney General under President Johnson, and United States Minister to England, and who was regarded as the greatest constitutional lawyer that ever lived.

In a recent letter from 1006 F St., N. W., Washington, D. C., Mr. Johnson says: "No one should longer suffer from catarrh when Peruna is accessible. To my knowledge it has caused relief to so many of my friends and acquaintances, that it is humanly to commend its use to all persons suffering with this distressing disorder of the human system."—Louis E. Johnson.

Catarrh Poisons.

Catarrh is capable of changing all the life-giving secretions of the body into washing fluids, which destroy and inflame every part they come in contact with. Applications to the places affected by catarrh can do little good save to soothe or quiet disagreeable symptoms. Hence it is that gargles, sprays, atomizers and inhalants only serve as temporary relief.

There is but one remedy that has the desired effect, and that remedy is Peruna. This remedy strikes at once to the roots of catarrh by restoring to the capillary vessels their healthy elasticity. Peruna is not a temporary palliative, but a radical cure.

Social Notes and About People.

Happy Birthday Party.

Master Henry Charles Harmeling, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Harmeling, entertained a crowd of little friends yesterday afternoon at his home 409 North Fifth street in honor of his sixth birthday, and the event was, the juvenile social function of the winter on the North Side. The house was decorated in red and white and evergreens and everything was attractive and pleasing as care and taste could make them.

Master Henry hospitably received his guests, and had prepared for them all kinds of games and amusements, one of which was a genuine cake walk, the prize in which was won by Miss Edna Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Will Clark.

A grand march to stirring music led them all to refreshments, and as in the other things, Master Henry had neglected nothing. There was everything good for the little folks and at the close of the banquet a novelty was sprung when they "cut the pie." A huge pie had been prepared, with red ribbons suspended from various parts of it. Each little lady and gentleman took a ribbon and pulled it, and drew forth a souvenir of the occasion.

The party was one that will long be remembered by the young host, who received many presents, as well as his guests.

Those present were: Misses Emma Lloyd, Inez Ayers, Frances Sonie, Edna Clark, Elizabeth Nagle, Dorothy Hralnerd, Irma Bryant, Bessie Michael; Masters George Myers, Edward Vaughan, Albert Wahl, George Bryant, Emmett Myers, George Katterjohn, Jimmie Wilhelm, Robert and Harry Utterback, James Lally, Palmer Jones, Willis and Richard Miller, Warren and Richard Gilbert, Edwin Michael.

U. D. C. Invited.

The Confederate Veterans will celebrate the birthday of General Robert E. Lee tomorrow evening at the court room in the city hall. All the members of the United Daughters of the Confederacy are invited to be present for the occasion and it is hoped that as many as possible will come out.

Theatrical Notes

Edward Dunn in advance of Eva Tanguay, and L. Keene, of the County Chairman company, were at Hotel Lagomarsino.

With a heart throo in every line; a love interest that commences with the first scene and does not end until the final fall of the curtain; with many beautiful women gowned in the quaint style of half a century ago; with dash and action and life, is it any wonder that Winston Churchill's great play, "The Crisis," takes rank as the most successful drama ever written in this country? With a record of nearly two thousand performances "The Crisis" comes to the Kentucky tonight for the first time, when the play will be presented with a new star in the person of clever Nannette Comstock, a new scenic production and the best acting company to appear in this play in several years.

WORSER EVERY YEAR.

And Plenty of Paducah Readers

Have the Same Experience. Don't neglect an aching back. It will get worse every year. Backache is really kidney ache. To cure the backache you must cure the kidneys.

If you don't, other kidney ills follow—

Urinary troubles, diabetes, Bright's disease.

A Paducah citizen tells you how—the cure is easy.

Mrs. C. H. Wilson, of 520 South Fourth street, says: "My father died with Bright's disease, and knowing what he suffered I was continually anxious about my own condition, particularly so then. I suffered untold misery for years with backache and kidney complaint. I have had attacks that compelled me to keep my bed for weeks, and no matter how comfortable my surroundings, the mattress seemed like a bed of rocks, and every movement I made felt like a dagger was piercing me in the kidneys. The worst attack I ever had was just previous to sending to DuBois, Kolb & Co's. drug store for Doan's Kidney Pills. I actually collapsed; there was swelling plainly visible across the loins and the aching was excruciating. When a few doses of Doan's Kidney Pills gave relief I could only call the help a Godsend. A continuation of the treatment disposed of the last attack. I eat well, sleep better and at present am in the best of health. Send anyone to me for minute particulars about my experience with and opinion of Doan's Kidney Pills."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

Changes in Operators.

Chief Dispatcher Neal, of the I. C., has made a number of changes in the operators for the block signal stations. W. R. Overby is transferred from Grahamville to Cedar Bluffs, relieving L. L. McKinney, night operator, who gets the day position at Cumberland River; J. H. Meadows is transferred from Clark's to Ruth, relieving J. E. Brewer, who goes to Calvert City; F. M. Hush is transferred from Calvert City to Hixley, relieving J. A. Furta, who accepts the night yard position at Central City.

Cured Lumbago.

A. B. Canman, Chicago, writes March 4, 1902: "Having been troubled with Lumbago at different times and tried one physician after another; then different ointments and liniments, gave it up altogether. So I tried once more, and got a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment, which gave me almost instant relief. I can cheerfully recommend it, and will add my name to your list of former sufferers." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by DuBois, Kolb & Co.

Burial at Memphis.

Sam Sing has decided to take the body of his brother, Lin Sing, to Memphis for temporary interment. Public Administrator F. G. Rudolph has charge of the dead man's estate and when everything has been wound up, the body will probably be disinterred at Memphis and taken to China. The date of leaving Paducah has not been decided on.

Pleasant and Most Effective.

T. J. Chambers, Ed. Vindicator, Liberty, Texas, writes Dec. 25, 1902: "With pleasure and unsolicited by you, I bear testimony to the curative power of Ballard's Horehound Syrup. I have used it in my family and can cheerfully affirm it is the most effective and pleasant remedy for coughs and colds I have ever used." 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by DuBois, Kolb & Co.

KENTUCKY NEWS TOLD IN PARAGRAPHS

Fire at Murray.

Murray, Ky., Jan. 18.—The Murray Institute burned last night. The origin of the fire is supposed to have been a defective flue. It was a brick building containing thirty or forty rooms, with a chapel, and was built by a stock company in 1871 and many well-known men of the state have graduated there. It was discovered late yesterday afternoon that the building was on fire. Murray has no fire department and the efforts of the "bucket brigade" to extinguish the flames were futile. There was no insurance on the building. The college stood in a campus of five acres on the main street of Murray, and was valued at $50,000.

Is 95 Years Old.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 18.—Col. Culbert Bullitt, the oldest living member of the Bullitt family and probably the oldest man in Louisville, celebrated his ninety-fifth birthday Monday. Despite his extreme age, Col. Bullitt is in the best of health, retaining his strength of mind and body to a remarkable degree. On account of slight trouble with his eyes, he is now at the St. Joseph Infirmary, where he was visited by hosts of friends who called to wish him the return of many happy birthdays.

Jury Saw Couple Opera.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 18.—For the first time in criminal history, it is believed, the fact that a jury sitting on a capital case went to witness a comic opera under guard of a sheriff is set up as one of the grounds why a new trial should be granted. The defendant in the case is James Garfield Smith, a negro, who was convicted of the murder of William Moore and sentenced to be hanged. While the trial was in progress the "Red Feather" was given in the city and the jury attended.

The only issue of the defense was an alibi, and in the plot of the play alibis are ridiculed, and because of this the defendant's counsel alleges that it had a tendency to prejudice the minds of the jury against the substantial rights of the negro and destroy the effect of his testimony tending to show an alibi. Hence a new trial is demanded.

Unwritten Law.

Louisville, Ky., Jan. 18.—Judge McCann recognized the unwritten law when he dismissed J. W. Wilson for firing two shots at Joe Costello, whom he found at his home. He said that no Kentucky jury would have convicted Wilson if he had killed Costello.

Attorney Acquitted.

Middlesboro, Ky., Jan. 18.—Attorney James Rolis, who was charged with forging returns from Excelsior precinct in the Hunter-Edwards contest, was acquitted on peremptory instructions of the judge, there being no evidence against him.

Jury Saw Couple Opera.

Lexington, Ky., Jan. 18.—For the first time in criminal history, it is believed, the fact that a jury sitting on a capital case went to witness a comic opera under guard of a sheriff is set up as one of the grounds why a new trial should be granted. The defendant in the case is James Garfield Smith, a negro, who was convicted of the murder of William Moore and sentenced to be hanged. While the trial was in progress the "Red Feather" was given in the city and the jury attended.

NEWS OF THE RIVERS

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River, 6.0 on the gauge, a rise of 0.6 in the last 24 hours. Weather cloudy and cool. Rain predicted. Temperature 38 degrees.

S. A. FOWLER, Local Observer.

There is little doing in the Ohio and Cumberland rivers, the ice interfering with steamboating. There are several boats up the Cumberland waiting for the ice to run out so they can come to Paducah.

The Clyde will go into Tennessee river tonight.

The Inverness arrived yesterday afternoon from Tennessee river and in backing out of the harbor broke her rudder and had to be pulled out on the docks.

The Charles Turner will go to Jopka today after empty barges.

The Charleston cleared yesterday afternoon late for Tennessee river.

The Little Clyde has gone to the Tennessee river after ties.

The Pavonia is due in today from Tennessee river.

The Margaret went into Tennessee river yesterday.

Captain H. F. Young, of Ironton, O., is here looking after the Barrett and her barges. The Barrett is here in winter quarters and will probably be here a month longer, Captain Young says.

Several of the "Itig Fellows" of the combine are on the way here from Pittsburg with loads of coal. Several of the smaller boats with tons are also on the way down.

If there is enough water, when the rise comes, the big Sprague and J. H. Finley will go on south with big loads of coal.

The mouth of Green river is full of boats seeking safety from the floating ice; Kentucky river also has a number laid up inside of its mouth in safety.

Mr. J. B. Lord, president of the Ayer & Lord Tie Co., is in the city today looking after the tie interests of his company in this section.

The Electra, the Scovel and the Red River, which passed Memphis several days ago on their way to this port, will probably not be able to get any further than Hickman, Ky., if that far, on account of the ice which is coming from the mouth of the Ohio river.—Nashville Banner.

The Fritz, a towboat belonging to the Pittsburg Coal Combine, is at the foot of the Broad street wharf where she has stopped on her way up the river to bring down some lumber barges. Her owners control a large percentage of the towing trade on the Ohio river.—Nashville Banner.

The Dick Fowler cleared on time for Cairo this morning.

The Nellie Willett is due in a few days from Tennessee river with staves.

The Fulton went to Cottonwood bar yesterday and took two barges from the ice. The barges belonged to Capt. O. Bauer, of Golconda, and were broken loose at that city. They were slightly damaged by the ice.

Death From Erysipelas.

K. Thompson, aged 52, died at Kaler, Ky., yesterday of erysipelas, and will be buried at Clark's river cemetery. He leaves three sons, and was well known in the county.

CHAPTER III.

THESE was more of hurry than of dignity in the entrance of Charles. The handsome face was marred by an imperious querulousness that for the moment detracted from its acknowledged nobility.

"Stratford," he cried impatiently, "I have been kept waiting. Servants are at this moment searching palace and park for you. Where have you been?"

"I was in the forest, your majesty. I am deeply grieved to learn that you needed me."

"I never needed you more than now. Are you ready to travel?"

Stratford's gloomy face almost lighted up.

"On the instant, your majesty," he replied, with a sigh of relief.

"That is well. I trust your malady is alleviated, in some measure at least. Still, I know that sickness has never been a bar to duty with you. Yet I ask no man to do what I can not will to do myself for the good of the state, and I shall be shortly on the road at your heels."

"Whether, your majesty," asked the earl, with falling countenance, for it was to Ireland he desired to journey, and he knew the king had no intention of moving toward the west.

"To London, of course; a short stint over land roads. But if you are ailing and fear the highway, a barge on the river is at your disposal."

"To London?" echoed the earl, something almost akin to dismay in his tone. "I had hoped your majesty would order me to Ireland, which, I assure your majesty, has been somewhat neglected of late."

"Yes, yes," exclaimed the king brusquely; "I know your anxiety in that quarter. A man ever thinks that task the most important with which he is intrusted, but my position gives me a view over the whole realm, and the various matters of state assume their just proportions in my eyes, their due relations to each other. Ireland is well enough, but it is the heart and not the limbs of the empire that requires the physician's care. Parliament has opened badly and is like to give trouble unless treated with a firm hand."

The hand of the earl appeared anything but firm. It wavered as it sought the support of the chair's arm.

"Have I your majesty's permission to be seated? I am not well," Stratford said feebly.

"Surely, surely," cried the king, himself taking a chair. "I am deeply grieved to see you so unwell, but a journey to London is a small matter compared with a march upon Dublin, which is like to have killed you in your present condition."

"Indeed, your majesty, the smaller journey may well have the more fatal termination," murmured the earl, but the king paid no attention to the remark, for his wandering eye now caught sight of a third in the conference, which brought surprised displeasure to his brow. The girl was standing behind the high back of the chair in which she had been seated, in a gloomy angle where the twilight which played so plainly on the king and Stratford did not touch her.

"Whom have we here? The plump prophet of the forest, or my eyes deceive me? How comes this girl in my palace, so intimate with my Lord Stratford, who seemed to meet her as a stranger but yesterday?"

The stumbling suspicion of Charles was unheeded, and he glanced from one to the other in haughty questioning.

"I never met her until I encountered her in the forest when I had the honor to accompany your majesty. Today, as I walked with the Countess and others, there came a second accession from her, as unexpected as the first. The girl craved private speech with me, which I somewhat reluctantly granted. The upshot is she brings me proof, which I cannot deny, that she is my eldest daughter."

"Your eldest daughter?" cried the king, amazed. "Is your family, then, so widely scattered and so far unknown to you that such a chieftain may spring up at any moment?"

"I was married privately to the daughter of Sir John Warburton. Circumstances separated me from my wife, and, although her father kindly informed me of her death, he said nothing of issue. There was a feud between us—entirely on his part. I had fought against him. It seems he has been dead this year past, and my daughter, getting news of her father among Sir John's papers, comes thus southward to make inquiry."

"You fall into good fortune, my girl. Your extraordinary claim is most readily allowed."

Frances, finding nothing to say, kept silence and bowed her head to the king, whom she had regarded throughout with rapid attention.

"Where got you your gift of prophecy? Is precedence hereditary, and has your father's mantle already fallen on your shoulders? He is my best friend, you said, and I my worst enemy. Madam, you did not lack for badness, but the force of the flattery of your father is legended by my knowledge of your relationship, hitherto concealed from me."

"Your majesty, it has hitherto been concealed from myself," said the earl wearily.

"Has the girl no tongue? It wagged freely enough in the forest. Come, masquerader, what have you to say for yourself?"

"Your majesty, I humbly crave your pardon. The words I used yesterday were not mine, but those of a gypsy in the north, who told me I was the daughter of the Earl of Stratford at a time when such a tale seemed so absurd that I laughed at her for connecting my name of Wentworth with one so exalted as the Earl of Stratford. Later, when I received proof that such indeed was the case, her words returned to me. I had no right to use them in your august presence, but the entourage of the Lord Stratford prevented my meeting him. This baffled, I sought to intercept him in the forest and was willing to use any strategy that might turn his attention toward me in the hope of getting a private word with him."

"I knew you had a tongue. Well, it matters little what you said. Your evasion seems to have been successful. Do not think I placed any weight upon your words, be they gypsy spoken or the outcome of a spirit of mischief. My Lord Stratford, you will to London then?"

"Instantly, your majesty."

"I will consult with you there tomorrow. And have no fear, for on my oath as a man, on my honor as a king, I will protect you."

The king rose and left the room as abruptly as he had entered it.

For some moments Stratford lay back in his chair, seemingly in a state of collapse. The girl looked on him in alarm.

"Sir, is there anything I can do for you?" she asked in length.

"Call a servant. Tell him to order a coach prepared at once and see that it is well horses, for I would have the journey as short as possible."

"My Lord, you are in no condition of health to travel to London. I will go to the king and tell him so."

"Do that I requested you and trouble me not with counsel. There is enough of woman's meddling in this business already."

Frances obeyed her father's instructions without further comment, then came and sat in her place again. The earl roused himself, endeavoring to shake off his languor.

"What think you of the king?" he asked.

"He is a man corroded with selfishness."

"Tut, tut! Such things are not to be spoken in the precincts of a court. No, nor thought. He is not a selfish monarch, other than all monarchs are selfish, but discussion on such a theme is fruitless, and I must be nearing my doctress to begin it. I am far from well, Frances, and so, like the Indian, must take to babbling."

"Do you fear parliament, my lord? How can it harm you when you have the favor of the king?"

"I fear nothing, my girl, except foolish, unseen interference, interference that may not be struck at or even hinted against. Did they teach you the history of France in your school?"

"No, my lord."

"Then study it as you grow older. I'll warrant you'll find it interesting enough, flummied by women, flummied by women. Seven civil wars in seventeen years, and all because of viperish, brainless women. Well, we have one of the breed here in England, and God help us!"

"You mean the queen, my lord?"

"Hush! Curses on it, will you be as outspoken as another of your sex is spiteful and subtle? Mend your manners, hussy, and guard your tongue. Could you not see you spoke too freely to the king a moment since?"

"Sir, I am sorry."

"Do not sorry, but cautious."

Stratford fell into a reverie, and there was silence in the room until the servant entered and announced that the coach was ready, whereupon his master rose unsteadily.

"Sir," said the girl, "will you not eat or drink before you depart?"

"No." Then, looking sharply at his daughter, he inquired, "Are you hungry?"

"Yes, my lord."

"Bring hither some refreshments, whatever is most ready at hand, and a measure of hot spiced wine. I had forgotten your youth, Frances, thinking all the world was old with me."

When the refreshment came she ate but sparingly despite her proclamation, but coaxed him to partake and to drink a cup of wine. He ordered a woman's cloak brought for her, which when she had thrown it over her shoulders he himself fastened at her throat.

"There," he said when the cloak enveloped her, "that will protect you somewhat, for the night grows cold."

Stratford himself was wrapped in warm furs, and thus together they went down the stairs to the court, now dimly lighted. A cavalier who seemed to have been standing in wait for them stepped out from the shadow of the arches, and Frances recognized the French spark whom she had so frankly characterized earlier in the day.

"My lord," protested the Countess faintly, "you have your comrades at a disadvantage. You have captured the woodland nymph and, I hear, propose splitting her away to London. I do protest 'tis most unfair to those who are thus left behind."

"Sir," said Stratford, with severity, pausing in his walk, "I would have you know that the lady to whom you refer is the Lady Frances Wentworth, my eldest daughter, ever to be spoken of with respect by high and low. Native and foreign shall speak otherwise at their distinct peril."

Rev. Carlisle P. B. Martin, L. L. D. Of Waverly, Texas, writes: "Of a morning, when first arising, I often find a troublesome collection of phlegm, which produces a cough and is very hard to dislodge; but a small quantity of Holland's Horsehold Syrup will at once dislodge it, and the trouble is over. I know of no medicine that is equal to it, and it is so pleasant to take. I can most cordially recommend it to all persons needing a medicine for throat or lung trouble." 25c, 50c and $1.00. WOMEN FOUGHT.

Polly Hicks and Bettie Scott, colored, Cut Each Other.

Polly Hicks and Bettie Scott, colored, are in jail pending trial tomorrow for malicious cutting. They got into a fight this morning and created a general disturbance in the neighborhood of 10th and Finley streets in the north end of the city.

The Scott woman struck the Hicks woman in the head with a pitcher. It is alleged, because the latter "called her out of her name."

The Hickman woman pulled a knife and cut her antagonist in the face. The Scott woman grabbed the knife away from the Hicks woman and cut the latter on the arm.

Both injuries are slight being merely flesh wounds. The wounds were dressed at the city hall.

Hayes' Beechwood Emulso-Hypo With Iron
Makes Fat, Strength, Blood, Bone and Muscle.

If you are tired, broken down, despondent, worn out, pale, losing flesh, have no energy, do not feel like rising in the morning for the day's work, you need a bottle of this wonderful medicine. Do you want good rich red blood? Do you want the bloom to come back to the cheek? Are you convalescing after having fever, pneumonia or measles? Then you ought to take a bottle of EMULSO-HYPO. Its medicinal food that reaches every tissue in the body and builds you up. Taken in a little wine its as pleasant as cough syrup.

Read what the editor of the Meridian Star of Mississippi, A. G. Davis, writes under date of April 8:

"My mother took the Emulso-Hypo and has been greatly benefited. She is in better health than she has been in years."

J. W. Russell, county clerk of Hickman county, Tenn., writes:

"My wife has used several bottles of Emulso-Hypo with Iron and has been wonderfully improved. I can conscientiously recommend it for all lung trouble."

Rev. G. T. Sullivan, presiding elder of the Memphis district, writes under date of Dec. 1, 1903:

"My daughter, whose system was very much run down, has been taking year Beechwood Emulso-Hypo with Iron, and has improved so much with one bottle I have no doubt by continuance she will be fully restored in her nerve forces. I am delighted with the results and shall continue her on it. Wishing you prosperity, I am, yours truly,

New Castle, Ind., July 22, 1903.

Pepsin Syrup Co., Monticello, Ill.

Gentlemen:—Last summer I was all run down from the ravages of asthma. My digestion was just about as bad as it could be, to digest at all, and in fact I was in such a condition that I was compelled to secure leave of absence from duty for two months, and "doctor up" and rest for a while. One of our passenger conductors spoke in glowing terms to me of your Syrup Pepsin. More to satisfy my folks than through any faith in the medicine, I agreed to try it.

I secured three bottles and took it according to directions faithfully. The result amazed me, as well as my local physician who seemingly had been unable to afford me any relief from the bloating after meals, terrible taste in my mouth almost constantly, and constant constipation. In ten days time I began to eat food that I had been "scared of" for ten months; the bloating and labored breathing after meals began to subside and my sleep began to benefit me. I kept right on with the Pepsin and in six weeks time I ate whatever I craved and when I felt like it.

I keep a bottle in my house constantly and whenever I need it I tackle it, and I find prompt relief from the maladies it is made to cure.

Any letters of inquiry from sufferers from indigestion or bowel trouble will be cheerfully and promptly answered. Yours very truly,

M. A. MORELAND,
